EN - This tour, organised by L-Tour, focuses in particular on the lesbian figures who have left their mark on the history of Belgium and Brussels, through the traces they have left in the city. Led by Marian Lens. Duration: 2 hours. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour

Queering Bxl - Thu 25 at 10h00 in EN

Guided tour by Architecture qui dégenre. Does Brussels have a queer history? What evidence is there of the current state of women's* and queer people's rights? Can we already celebrate this, and what path remains for us to travel together towards a more liveable city? Duration 2h. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour.

To the tune of an opera - Thu 25 at 10h00 – EN

In search of places and anecdotes linked to opera and classical music in the centre of Brussels. An outdoor walking tour by 91e parallèle in the company of a music lover. And we won't sing, we promise! Duration 2h. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour.

Feminist tour of Béguinage - Thu25 at 18h00 in EN

L'architecture qui dégenre asbl invites you to discover this Brussels matrimony from a feminist perspective. Who were the Beguines? Why are they considered by historians as forerunners of feminist movements? What is a Beguinage? In what way is it a form of egalitarian architecture? Duration 1h30. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour.

Pride in the City - Friday 26 at 10h00 – EN

Organised by the Brussels City Museum, this historical walking tour takes you from the Grand-Place to explore the city centre neighbourhoods where LGBTQIA+ people used to gather in the 19th and 20th centuries: the Saint-Hubert Galleries, Rue des Bouchers, the Bourse and the Marché au Charbon. The route, peppered with anecdotes, traces how these places have changed and evolved alongside society. Celebrating Brussels' rich diversity, it ends at the RainbowHouse, a welcoming space for the entire LGBTQIA+ community. Duration 2h. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour.

Brussels and the Witches - Fri 26 at 10h00 in EN

In the 14th century, just as society was preparing to leave the 'dark' Middle Ages behind and move towards the Modern Era and the Renaissance, women, for their part, were plunged into darkness – or rather, into the flames of the stake. What does our urban public space from that era reveal to us... and what does it say about the witches of today? Guided tour by Architecture qui dégenre. Duration 2h. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour.

LGBT+ in the centre of Bxl - Fri 26 at 10h00 – EN

An LGBT+ tour through the streets of Brussels, led by 91e parallèle. A look into the past with a few stories and anecdotes. A look at the present, with a few must-see places, but also about helping people who lost their way. And a few thoughts for the future on the acceptance of LGBT+ people. Need some butter, coal or a chaufferette ? – Follow the guide ! Duration 1h30. Non-refundable unless the guide cancels the tour.

Pride in the City - Saturday 27 at 10h00 – EN

Architectes femme belges - Samedi 27 à 10h00 en FR

Le parcours de cette visite, guidée par Architecture qui dégenre asbl, met en valeur des bâtiments encore méconnus de l'après-guerre dans le centre-ville de Bruxelles : des années 1950 à l'époque contemporaine, dans un ordre chronologique. Voici une occasion de poser un regard neuf sur le centre-ville et de prendre conscience du patrimoine bâti présent dans le quartier. Cette visite a également pour objectif de diffuser et faire connaître des noms d'architectes femmes qui ont eu un impact depuis l'après-guerre et de présenter l'évolution des conditions de travail des femmes dans le milieu de l'architecture. Durée 2h. Non-remboursable sauf si le guide annule la visite.
